

Terms and conditions for Namara Ippatsu Entry

I will behave politely, and follow the instructions of the contest organizer and management staff.

In the case that an accident occurs due to my own responsibility during my participation in this contest, I will take responsibility and handle the situation.

I accept that photographs and video footage taken by the event organizer at this contest will be used according to the judgment of the event organizer.

I will pay 10,000 yen to the event secretary if I lose, damage or fail to return my bib (athlete number).

I accept that the competition schedule, competition method and judging rules may be changed at the last minute due to the weather conditions on the day of the contest.

I am aware that the contest involves danger, and am fully aware that it will be held in a natural environment prone to change, and that the physical conditions of the participants can also change rapidly.

The condition of my health is good, and I will participate in the contest paying full attention to safety and physical health, under the self-awareness and responsibility of individual participants. In the case that an accident occurs in which I am a victim or an aggressor, I will take responsibility and handle the situation, regardless of the cause, and I hereby pledge that I will not lay the blame on the contest organizer or related parties.

In the case that I am injured, involved in an accident, or become unwell during the contest, I consent to the fact that treatment will be carried out on me, and I will not raise objections to the method or results of such treatment.

In the case that the organizer judges that there is an impediment to continuing the contest, I will accept advice to terminate my participation.

My family, relatives or legal guardian have understood and accepted the contents of the contest based on this written pledge, and consent to my participation in the contest.

I pledge that I will not bring legal action against the organizer, the contest sponsor, the contest venue, parties related to this contest, officials or staff, regarding any loss or damage that occurs due to my participation in this contest. I confirm that I, or my legal successor or proxy, are bound by this disclaimer.

I understand that when skiing or snowboarding there are dangers of damage or loss, or of serious injury, functional paralysis or in the worst case death, due to my own or others' actions, inactions, or negligence. Furthermore, I understand that there are also unknowable risks.

I accept that participation fees will not be refunded in the case that this event is canceled due to various circumstances.

I accept that participation fees will not be refunded in the case that participants cancel their entry or do not participate due to their own personal circumstances.